SCHOOL SONG:

(Verse 1)

In this school, we gather near,
With open hearts, devoid of fear.
Grant us wisdom, Lord, each day,
As we learn and work and play.

(Chorus)

Bless our teachers, guide our way,

In this school, we humbly pray.
May knowledge bloom, and friendship,
In this place, Lord, bless us anew. (X 2)
(Verse 2)

Grant us patience, grant us grace,
As we navigate this learning space.
Help us grow in mind and soul,
Towards our goals, let us boldly stroll.
(Chorus)

Bless our teachers, guide our way,
In this school, we humbly pray.
May knowledge bloom, and friendships true,
In this place, Lord, bless us anew.

TRANSLATION:

Better than the entire world, is our Hindustan,

We are its nightingales, and it (is) our garden abode

If we are in an alien place, the heart remains in the homeland,

Know us to be only there where our heart is.

That tallest mountain, that shade-sharer of the sky,

(It) is our sentry, (it) is our watchman

In its lap frolic those thousands of rivers,
Whose vitality makes our garden the envy of Paradise.
O the flowing waters of the Ganges, do you remember that day
When our caravan first disembarked on your waterfront?
Religion does not teach us to bear ill-will among ourselves
We are of Hind, our homeland is Hindustan.
In a world in which ancient Yunnan, Misr, and Roma have all vanished without trace
Our own attributes (name and sign) live on today.
Such is our existence that it cannot be erased
Even though, for centuries, the cycle of time has been our enemy.
